Hendersonville – The Henderson County Sheriff's Office would like to release further information regarding the theft of four camper trailers from Todd's RV and Marine in Fletcher on November 9, 2006.

One of the suspects sought in this case, 46 year-old Hogan Hugh Justice turned himself into the Henderson County Magistrates Office on the evening of Monday, December 11. He is being held in the Henderson County Detention Center under a $50,000 secured bond, charged with three counts of breaking and entering. Two additional camper trailers were also recovered.

The Henderson County Sheriff's is still looking for 36 year-old James Douglas Tinsley in connection with the theft. If you have any information regarding this individual or the missing trailer please call Crimestoppers at 828-697-STOP (7867).
