Hendersonville – The Henderson County Sheriff's Office would like to announce that Sheriff Rick Davis has withdrawn his request to re-hire Ron Davis into the Criminal Investigations Division of the Henderson County Sheriff's Office. The initial request was to be heard at the March 12 Board of Commissioners meeting and was moved to the March 21 Board of Commissioners meeting.

The decision to withdraw the request comes as a result of Ron Davis accepting a position as an Investigator with the District Attorney's Office. District Attorney Jeff Hunt states, "We in the District Attorney's Office are thrilled that Ron has agreed to join us as our investigator. He brings, to any job he fills, a tremendous amount of expertise and experience as a detective. We have been in negotiations and conversations for some time knowing that Ron will be returning to the area in May of this year. He will be joining us at the District Attorney's Office in late May."

"These conversations were ongoing and part of the process to ensure that someone such as Ron, with his experience, remained in Henderson County. This can only benefit the people of Henderson County, all aspects of law enforcement in Henderson County and the District Attorney's Office," says Sheriff Rick Davis.

Ron Davis will remain a reserve with the Henderson County Sheriff's Office.
