Hendersonville – Detectives with the Henderson County Sheriff's Office arrested 28-year-old Shane Wade Smith this morning. Smith was wanted in connection with an armed robbery which occurred at 2104 Kanuga Road. The robbery took place at the Exxon Station located near the intersection of Price Road and Kanuga Road. Officials from the Sheriff's Office had been searching for Smith since the incident occurred on Monday, July 2, 2007.

Shane Wade Smith is charged with one felony count of robbery with a dangerous weapon. He is currently in the Henderson County Detention Center under a $60,000 secured bond.

"I want to thank everyone in the community that provided information which helped us apprehend Shane Smith" says Sheriff Rick Davis. "Our detectives and patrol officers have worked hard over the past few days to ensure that this issue was resolved at the earliest possible point."
