

Investigators from the Henderson County Sheriffs Office believe that David Albert Hayes, the missing white male who is the subject of a Silver Alert, appeared to be physically well and by himself yesterday morning in Travelers' Rest SC.

Detectives were made aware of an ATM transaction involving a bank card belonging to Mr. Hayes. They were able to go to the area and retrieve video footage that shows Mr. Hayes, walking out of the Wal-Mart in Travelers' rest at 0830 in the morning on April 8th. He was wearing blue jeans, what appears to be a grey zippered hooded jacket, and a dark colored knit cap. He appeared to be alone as he walked in a southerly direction away from the store. Investigators are still looking for other information and trying to determine where Mr. Hayes may be headed.

Sheriff Rick Davis is asking that anyone who may have seen Mr. Hayes please call the Henderson County Sheriffs Office. Or their local law enforcement agency with that information. "We are gratified to see that it was Mr. Hayes on the video, and that he appears ok. The issue however is that even though he appeared alright, his family and we are concerned that he might become a victim of opportunity due to the fact that he may be disoriented and lost in unfamiliar surroundings. Any credible information may help ensure that he is rescued and returned to his family and the care that he needs. We appreciate the media and the Travelers Rest Police Department for their help in this case."
