

The suspect in the assault that took place at 105 Cliffbrook Court in Kenmure, was arrested by Henderson County Deputies near his residence at 132 Little Lane in Hendersonville. Deputies stated that the arrest was made about 6:45 p.m. without incident and Charles Anthony Ball was taken to the Henderson County Detention Center for booking and to appear before a magistrate. He was placed under a 250,000.00 dollar bond.

Investigators worked throughout the day gathering evidence and following leads. As a result of the investigation which is still ongoing; a warrant was obtained for the arrest of Mr. Ball for "Assault with a Deadly Weapon with Intent to Kill, Inflicting Serious Injury". It is expected that other charges will be filed, however we have nothing further to release at this time
